

BY-LAWS OF CINNAMINSON ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

ATTACHMENT 1 – CODE OF CONDUCT

Code of Conduct Codes of Conduct are essential in youth programs and the adoption of the following code is a method devised to help develop sportsmanship, character, safety and fair play.

Football and Cheerleading Coaches

All football and cheerleading coaches should refrain from:

- Use of foul language.
- Abusing participants.
- Harassment and abuse of players, coaches and officials from the sidelines and/or social media will not be tolerated.
- Riding of opposition of fans by word or gesture.
- Permitting an injured player to enter or re-enter a game.
- Disobeying or attempting to circumvent rules and regulations or the intent thereof.
- Encourage unnecessarily rough tactics in the play of the game against the body and person of any participants.
- Use of tobacco (to include vaping), drugs, or intoxicants while going on or coming off the field of play or while on the field of play, be it at practices or games.
- Misconduct resulting in ejection by an official. Any coach who is ejected (removed) from a game is automatically suspended from the next game his team plays. This rule is not subject to protest or review. Removal from a game shall be interpreted to include the playing field and spectator area. A second offense by the same person will result in suspension from all future team activities for that year.
- All football and cheerleading coaches will uphold the rules and regulations of League By-Laws and decisions of the CAA Board. Failure to comply will result in disciplinary action or suspension. All disciplinary action meetings will be held as a closed session Board meeting, all decisions will be made based on a majority vote.
- If a coach is suspended they may still attend practices during the week. The suspensions are only for game days unless otherwise stated by the Board.

Parents, Spectators and Attendees

All parents, spectators and attendees shall:

- Conduct themselves in a sensible manner at all games and practices. Riotous, boisterous, threatening or indecent conduct or the use of abusive, threatening or indecent language at all games and practices will not be tolerated.
- Never harass officials, opposition or the coaching staff. Harassment and abuse of players and coaches from the sidelines and/or social media will not be tolerated.
- Refrain from the use, consumption or presence of any tobacco products (to include vaping), drugs or intoxicants at all games and practices. There is NO SMOKING at any CAA function or event.
- Refrain from any unauthorized presence on the playing field or practice field.
- Refrain from interacting with the participants and coaching staff during the game.
- Obey the league established sideline boundaries. Failure to comply may result in penalties for the team the infraction is on.
- Obey the CAA officials if asked to keep the end zones clear during play. Failure to comply may result in penalties for the team the infraction is on.
- Adhere to proper attire (i.e. no obscene graphics).
- All Parents, Spectators and Attendees will uphold the rules and regulations of the League By-Laws and decisions of the CAA Board. Failure to comply will result in disciplinary action, suspension or removal for the season. All disciplinary decisions will be held in a closed session Board meeting.

Participants

All participants shall not:

- Refuse to abide by an official's decision.
- Show disrespect to any official, any coach or any other participant.
- Harassment and abuse of players and coaches from the sidelines and/or social media will not be tolerated.
- Use unnecessarily rough tactics in the play of the game against the body and person of an opposing participant;
- Any use tobacco (to include vaping), drugs, or intoxicants while going on or coming off the field of play or while on the field of play, be it at practices or games.
- Use of abusive or profane language.
- Alter equipment to gain a competitive advantage or to inflict injury to an opponent.
- If a participant is ejected from a game, for any reason, they must sit out the next game. A second ejection will result in the suspension from all future activities for current season.
- All participants will uphold the rules and regulations of League By-Laws and decisions of the CAA Board. Failure to comply will result in disciplinary action or suspension. All disciplinary action meetings will be held as a closed session Board meeting.
- If a player is suspended they may still attend practices during the week. The suspensions are only for game days unless otherwise stated by the Board.

CAA Social Media Guidelines

Posted comments and images do not necessarily represent the views of Cinnaminson Athletic Association. External, non-CAA links do not constitute official endorsement by CAA.

While we encourage fans to share thoughts and opinions on the social media site, we expect that this will be done in a respectful manner. CAA does not agree with or endorse every comment that individuals post on our pages. Our goal is to share ideas and information with as many individuals as possible and our policy is to accept the majority of comments made to our pages. Therefore, a comment will be deleted if it contains any of the following:

- Hate speech
- Profanity, obscenity or vulgarity
- Nudity in profile pictures
- Defamation to a person or people
- Name calling and/or personal attacks
- Comments whose main purpose are to sell a product
- Comments that infringe on copyrights
- Spam comments, such as the same comment posted repeatedly on a profile
- Other comments that the CAA Board and Board of Directors deems inappropriate.

All links posted as comments on CAA posts will be reviewed and may be deleted. Repeated violations of the CAA comment policy may cause the author to be blocked from all social media sites. We understand that social media is a 24/7 medium; however, our moderation capabilities are not. We may not see every inappropriate comment right away, and we are trusting in the maturity of our community to ignore personal attacks and negative speech or respond politely.

CAA believes that the well-being of the sport depends on a broad appreciation of the game, excellence in coaching, an emphasis on safety and health, high levels of youth participation and collaboration with many partner organizations involved in youth football and cheerleading. CAA will promote this through fun, family and fundamentals.
